Message from the Head

Teacher

Dear Parents/Carers

Every year Hertford and Ware Sport Partnership holds an Awards Evening. Each school is asked to nominate children and adults in many different categories. This year, we had two nominees representing Christ Church: Amy Briggs, from Horowitz class, was nominated in the category of school Sports Ambassadors and Jane Bevis was nominated as a parent volunteer.

Just before the Easter holidays we got very excited because both Amy and Jane were shortlisted and invited to attend the Awards ceremony, which took place last night. I am extremely happy to announce that Amy and Jane won in their categories. I would like to congratulate both of them; in my opinion they totally deserve the awards.

As a school we are very grateful to both Amy and Jane, for their relentless enthusiasm, hard work and commitment to sports. Without volunteers like Jane, helping in many different ways, the children would have never experienced such a rich and varied curriculum we are currently providing at Christ Church. So thanks to you both.
