Poem

Inspector

Inspectors are very neat and good,
They also live in the neighbourhood,
They wander around in all the schools,
And watches children play with balls.

He likes to watch the children learn,
And sees all the silver stamps they earn,
He lies to see the children be kind,
And he is thankful that they're not blind!

And when its time to go home,
He is impressed that they don't moan,
He's enjoyed the day very much,
And these one more finishing touch....

IMPRESSIVE!

Library Volunteers Required

If you have any spare time and are looking to volunteer, we are currently looking for people to help run our lunchtimes / after school library sessions. If you are interested, please speak to the school office for further details.

Lost Property

A girls jumper was lost last week at Friday Football club, it is black and white striped with sequins on and was last seen in school hall. If found please hand back in to the school office.
