Message from Head Teacher

Dear Parents/Carers,

One of the busiest weeks of the school year has just ended, what a relief that we have another twelve months before we have to face a new round of SATs.

As usual, the children in Year 6 have faced the tests with a great deal of stamina, resilience, perseverance and a sense of humour. They showed the sort of strengths that will help them in adult life at least as much as the ability to pass tests. Well done to all the children in Year 6. Although there will be plenty of more hard work to come once you are back from Kingswood, have a well deserved rest this weekend.

I also want to thank the Year 6 staff for preparing the children so well and making this week go so smoothly. It takes a great deal of organisational skills to ensure that all the tests are carried out correctly and the children feel supported, so they can do their best. It is also great to see how the rest of the staff get together to assist the Year 6 team. What a great way to demonstrate to the children the benefits of co-operation, our value of the month.

Next week, we will be busy again; there will be Kingswood for Year 6, Cuffley Camp for Year 5 and Multi skills Festival for KS1.

Have a restful weekend.

Ania Vaughan

Golden Book

The children in McKee class have been learning the story of 'Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See?' The children wrote their own versions of the story by changing the characters.

They have read their stories to teachers and children in school, using great expression.

Matilda and Ethan were entered into the golden book for their great independent writing. Well done!

Have a look on our blog to listen to their stories:

Christ Church Has Talent 2017!

Date: Friday 12th May 2017 Edition: 29

Christ Church Contact

Christ Church Has Talent is returning for 2017! You should have received an audition form for your child via Parent Mail this week, and there are also printed copies available in reception if required.

Please get your forms in by Fri 26th May; auditions will take place in school on Weds 7th June, with the live final taking place at the end of June (date tbc).

There will be prizes for different age groups and an exciting line up of judges. We hope to see lots of our talented kids showcasing their skills so whatever your act - singing, dancing, acting, magic, comedy, music or anything else - we want to hear from you!

Poem by Alex D, McGough

In my box by Alex D

In my box I'll put, a pot of victory,
A witches nose,
A creepers leg,
A skeletons nose.

In my box I'll put,
A flicker of a candle,
The smile of a new born baby,
A tip of an arrow,
And a kick of a letter.

I will surf my box,
Across the Pacific and Atlantic,
My box has the hinges of a crocodile tooth
And is made of bronze and gold and
Encrusted with diamonds, rubies and 4 emeralds.

I will surf my box all the way back to shore.
