Message of the Week

Dear Parents/Carers,

I am pleased to finally announce the new classroom names following the children's vote last term.

The suggested authors have been discussed at length by teachers, senior leaders and the governing body and we are confident that the new class names are an excellent reflection of what our children love to read. I hope that you agree.

The new names will be effective from September.

Please be aware that from after half term the school office will only be open for visitors between 8.45am—9.15am and then again from 3.15-3.45pm. Outside of this time all contact should be via telephone or email.

If you need to collect a child early for an appointment please notify us in advance by email or telephone.

The final half of the summer term is very busy for the school office so we would appreciate if you could refrain from casual visits during the school day.

Young Writers Competition

Congratulations to the following children whose Toy Story entries have been selected for publication by Young Writers. This year, they have received over 12,000 entries and the standard of stories has really wowed the editors so to be chosen is a truly amazing achievement. I look forward to buying the book when it is published later this year. Well done to:

Lois S, Grace W, Alfie A, Mason D, Evie W, Tilly C, Gracie-Mai G (Tolkien class) and Alfie H, Anna K, Charlie C, Radigan H, Seth H, Tilly G, and Bessie G (Shakespeare class).

Defibrillator Fund

The grand total now stands at £536!!

We are over half way there, please keep up support for this fantastic project.

Hair That Rocks!

Friday 25th May is Hair that Rocks (in exchange for bringing sweets and chocs that will be used by PSA at the summer BBQ).

For anyone who hasn't already thought about this there will be a few mums in the playground first thing, with coloured sprays / gels / glitters etc to save you the effort! They are going to charge £1 per child, which will go towards the defibrillator fund. This is separate to the PSA so please don't forget to bring sweets /chocs also, which is the main point of Hair that Rocks!

If any parents wish to help on that morning please do let the PSA know, all help will be gratefully received.

Note for all Year 4's—you are swimming on this day so please be mindful of how you do your hair.

Christ Church Has Talent Reminder

Audition forms need to be returned by Friday 25th May. Auditions will take 7th June, with the live final taking place on 19th June.
