Message from Head Teacher

Dear Parents/Carers,

Today, with the sun shining upon us, we have held another successful Sports Day. After a sensational win last year by the Matthew House, this year John House lifted the well deserved trophy. I congratulate all the members of this House; it was a tough competition and you really did your best, well done!

All the other children did really well too; your excellent attitude of fair play and being supportive of each other is highly appreciated; a real team spirit prevailed today. Special thanks go to Laura Ball, our PE Subject Leader and the rest of the staff for organising the event.

Since we have had the same format of the Sports Day for the last few years, I think it is time to reflect on what has worked well and what possibly need refreshing or tweaking in the years to come.

Therefore, a short survey will follow on email, which will help us assess the effectiveness of our Sports Day. The children and staff will be doing their own evaluation, but as you come every year and support your children so passionately, we are very much interested in your opinions and constructive suggestions. Please complete the survey, it should not take a long time.

Thank you for your co-operation.

Ania Vaughan
Head Teacher

BBC Ten Pieces

The below picture are the creative responses produced by Hargreaves class after listening to The Storm, which was one of the BBC Ten Pieces which all children had a chance to listen to and choose a class favourite. The music is on the BBC website if you would like to have a listen.

The Bag of Poems by Evelyn P. Lewis

Inspired by Sound Collector a poem by Roger McGough, Evelyn wrote this at home and we would like to share it with you.

A stranger knocked on my door one day and collected all the sounds and ran away.

The bang from the stove,
The clang from the cups,
The spray from the perfume,
The food for the pups.

The tap from the sink,
The flush of the toilet,
The swosh from the washing machine,
The chip of the bucket,
The pounce of the rabbit.

The bounce of the ball,
The squeak from the mouse,
The thump from the fall.

A stranger knocked on my door one day and collected all the sounds and ran away.

Overdue Library Books

Please can you ensure that all library books are returned on time. This week we have had 117 overdue library books, which then causes lots of problems with our booking system.

Library books are checked out for a period of two weeks and then need to be returned or swapped for a new one.

Lost or damaged books will incur a £5 fee.

Messy Church

Messy Church at Christ Church meets this Sunday, 18th June, from 4-6pm in the Church Centre. It's for all members of the family and everyone is welcome. There will be lots to do including singing, crafts and storytime, and a tea is provided for everybody.

Messy Church meets on the third Sunday of the month. If you can't make it this time our next session is on Sunday 16th July. We hope to see you soon.

Date: Friday 12th June 2017 Edition: 33

When I Heard the Music

When I heard the music,
I saw danger filling the air,
War scenes and all, tornadoes ripping tree roots
From the ground,
Like the world was dying.
